Holy Family Parish Accounts: you will all be pleased to know that our parish accounts for 2024/2025 have been completed, audited and submitted to the diocese on time. If you want a summary, Linda Forster is normally in the porch after weekend Mass and will give you a copy. As a charity, the diocese expects every parish to submit its accounts as a fair and reasonable record. This is your money and you should know it is properly monitored and recorded. This year the parish would like to record its thanks to Deacon Michael Harrison of Lytham who has audited our accounts for nearly 20 years, but is retiring. We are also grateful to Janice Spaulding of Sacred Heart, Ashton, who has taken on the Independent check (audit) of the parish accounts. Many thanks also to all of you who support the parish financially, to those who collect and count, record and monitor, as well as bank the money.
