Happy New Year...new Church year that is. The Season of Advent marks the beginning of a New Year in the Liturgy and in church life. In Sunday Mass you will notice the Gospel of Matthew takes on greater prominence. We have reached the end of the Diocesan Centenary Year, we are now 101! The year of Jubilee will end on January 6th. But we dedicate our time to The Lord and can be assured that He will be with us as we live.

"The Word became flesh" Looking for answers.

These three sessions for Advent are designed to allow you to air and reflect on aspects of our Catholic faith that you might find challenging or enjoyable. I've received a few suggestions for consideration, and there's room for more!

Please write down you question and place it through the presbytery door or put it into the collection basket as it comes around at Sunday Masses.

The Sessions will last about an hour and will be hosted at Holy Family Presbytery on December 3, 10 and 17 starting at 7pm.

Welcome!
