Thank you very much for your continued support and best wishes to all for good fortune in the year's monthly draws.

The Crib offerings this year are being sent to the Latin Patriarchate in Jerusalem. This is to support the Catholic parishes (which include Bethlehem, Gaza and the West Bank) in their mission to provide medical care, food and shelter to all who seek help. Thank you for your support. The box will remain at the back of church until the crib is taken down.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. 2026. This annual cycle of prayer reminds the Christian people of pray for unity, especially when society around us is becoming fractious and ever more divided. We follow Our Lord prayer intention from John 17 ("Father may they all be one"). For some days of Unity Week we are invited to the regular services of our three churches in Freckleton. This will include:

Monday 19th January 4pm. Holy Trinity Church. Evening Prayer.
Tuesday 20th January Holy Family Catholic Church. Mass at 7pm.
Wednesday 21st January. 2.15pm Freckleton Methodist Church. Prayer. Please do your best to support this week of prayer in our area.

There is always coffee after Mass on Sunday at St Anne's in the house. All are welcome.
