Freckleton Club Day 2026. A generous thank you of appreciation to all those who contributed to our parish's part in the Club Day procession of witness last week. Preparing lifting and holding the banners during the procession, getting the children on the float ready...getting the float ready. Thanks to our retiring May Queen Betsy Maguire, and to Amelie our current May Queen. To all those who helped in whatever way in the background, both before and after the event. To Charlotte and Cheryl, Jan and Christina for their help in particular. May God bless you all.

Collection for June will be published after month end.
